“Reforms in Ukraine 2014-2020: Change (IR)Reversible? Training for Future Policy Analysts”

16-31 August 2021

What?

- Introduction to Ukraine’s political history in the context of the post-Soviet transformation in Eastern Europe. Three Revolutions in Ukraine (the Revolution on Granite (1990); Orange Revolution (2004) and the Euromaidan (2013) (in collaboration with the College of Europe (Natolin)).
- Reforms in Ukraine 2014-2021. This block presents scholars’ and practitioners’ view on the overall reforms’ dynamics (2014-2021), their institutional organization, key challenges and the organization of foreign support, as well as an in-depth insight into seven key reform fields (decentralization, public administration, land reform, public finance management reform, reform of the judiciary and law enforcement agencies, healthcare reform, as well as the transformation of the National Bank of Ukraine.
- The Foundations of Public Policy Analysis. The participants will be introduced to the foundations, key concepts and methodologies of public policy analysis. They will participate in a workshop on the creation of policy briefs and use the acquired knowledge to complete the final project in groups (i.e. a policy brief).
- Public Policy, Critical Thinking and Countering Disinformation. The block will introduce participants to the strategies of critical thinking, as well as identifying and countering disinformation in the context of specific government policies. T
- The Higher Education System and Educational/Research Opportunities in Ukraine. The block provides participants with an insight into the organization of the higher education system and educational/research opportunities for foreign students in Ukraine.
- Ukrainian Language and Culture. A series of workshops, aimed at teaching participants basic Ukrainian and introducing Ukraine’s culture to them.
- Final Project. The participants will work in small groups (up to 4 persons) to debate questions, highlighted in the Concept above, and write policy briefs. The best policy brief(s) will be published with the analytical platform Vox Ukraine (following the editorial process).
