CORRESPONDENTS IN CONFLICTS

EXCHANGE PROGRAM FOR JOURNALISTS

Our mission is:

- To promote cross-border co-operation between journalists from Germany and Armenia
- To initiate lasting journalistic networks on the subject of war-reporting
- To raise awareness of the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict and other conflicts in the Eastern Partnership countries

Your part in our project:

Would you like to carry out research on the topics of war and conflict, working together with colleagues and experts from Germany and Armenia? We put you in contact with the relevant stakeholders and NGOs and support you in your research. The study trip to Yerevan/Armenia will take place from 7th-14th November 2023.

We will gladly cover the costs for the flights (from Dortmund), for the program as well as the hotel (in double-rooms). Please plan your own costs for meals and the airport transfer to Dortmund. Flight costs can only be covered for the route from Dortmund to Yerevan and back on the project days (7th to 14th November 2023) - tickets for deviating routes or days need to be paid by you. If needed, booking of a single-room is possible (with a single-room supplement).

After your participation in the research trip, we expect to be able to publish at least one journalistic contribution on the Yerevan Press Club site. Further publications in various media from your side are welcome.

Our project activities:

October 2023: Armenian journalists visit Berlin in order to discuss the conflict in Nagorno-Karabakh, and other conflicts in the Eastern Partnership, with stakeholders from Germany.

November 2023: Research trip to Yerevan/Armenia from 7th-14th, 2023 (directed at journalists from German-speaking countries).

December 2023: The articles and contributions should be published in different kinds of media. We would greatly appreciate you having specific ideas as to where your contributions can be published. In addition, all participants should publish at least one article on the Yerevan Press Club site in English. We are pleased to offer editing and translation support with this.

Who can apply?

Journalists from Germany, who are interested, or have already gained, some experience in covering war-related topics and want to deepen their knowledge in conflict-related journalism. When reviewing applications, we attach great importance to specific research ideas and realisation, as well as to a fair gender distribution.

How to apply?

Deadline for your application: June 11th 2023. Please apply with your letter of motivation, a CV and a max. one-page outline of your research idea. Please also mention some initial ideas where you could publish your article (besides the Yerevan Press Club site). Please submit your application in English.
